We separate the tuition fees into basic and optional academic support to provide greater flexibility and transparency for our families. The following are the key reasons:

1. Tailored Education

By separating the fees, we can offer a more personalized approach to education. The basic tuition covers the core Montessori curriculum, ensuring every child receives a high-quality early childhood education. The optional academic support is designed for families who wish to provide additional resources and specialized programs for their children, such as Eiken test preparation and advanced reading programs.

2. Flexibility for Families

We understand that each family's needs and priorities are different. Some parents may prefer to focus on the core curriculum, while others may want to invest in additional academic support. By offering these options separately, we allow families to choose the level of support that best suits their children's needs and their own preferences.

3. Transparency in Costs

Separating the fees helps us maintain transparency in our pricing. Parents can see exactly what they are paying for and understand the value of each component. This clarity helps build trust and ensures that parents are fully informed about the costs associated with their children's education.

4. Exclusive Benefits for Full-Time Students

The optional academic support is a privilege extended exclusively to our full-time preschool students. This ensures that those who are fully committed to our program receive the maximum benefits and support, reinforcing the value of full-time enrollment.

By structuring the tuition fees this way, we aim to provide a comprehensive and flexible educational experience that meets the diverse needs of our families while maintaining the high standards of Montessori Tsukuba International Preschool.
